Thank you, Kate.

EPA clears without further comment on the following papers:

- Compliance Committee (ICC)
- WHO/ILO
- Finance rules
- Rules of Procedure
- Venue and Date

EPA has just a few comments on the three following papers (attached):

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I've also attached the final Storage papers.

We are still working on the remaining papers and hope to be able to share the latest on them by the morning. Also, we are looking forward to wrapping up Effectiveness Evaluation tomorrow.

If it would be possible for some of these papers to be shared in their final form with the interagency group tomorrow (Wednesday), we think that would be very helpful especially for members of the delegation who will be preparing their books.

Best wishes
Evonne

Dear Evonne,

Thank you very much for these comments, and please see our edits and responses in the attached.

I'd like to also settle on a timeline for pulling together final versions of all the papers. For those State papers for which we have responded to your comments and made corresponding edits, please let us know by COB Tuesday (11/13) if you have further concerns.

For the EPA papers on which we and other interagency colleagues provided comments, please send us updated versions by COB Wednesday of next week (11/14).

This of course is excluding the effectiveness evaluation paper, and the waste papers that were sent out later. For the waste paper, we'll get comments to you by Tuesday, and let's aim to finalize by Thursday. For effectiveness evaluation, we should have reactions to you on the version you sent by OOB Tuesday (let us know if you have heard anything further from EPA colleagues on that). In your email on the EE paper, you had mentioned sharing with the interagency: my plan is to share all of the revised, final papers with the interagency (including our delegation), including this one, by COB next Thursday.

Thanks,
Kate

Dear colleagues,
We are pleased to share with you EPA's comments on the four State papers shared last week, attached.

We are currently working through the comments from the papers that have come back after the first round, and hope to have them back to you in the first half of next week. We are also still working furiously on the Effectiveness Evaluation paper and expect to share it by end of today.

Best wishes

Evonne
